SOURCE:

1. As of 28 April 1953, the Transformatorwerk "Karl Liebknecht", Berlin Oberschoeneweide had overfulfilled its production plan for the first quarter of 1953 by 9 percent. According to law, this entitled all engineer and supervisory groups to a bonus of three percent of the gross monthly pay for each percent of overfulfillment, but because the budget was overdrawn, the bonus was refused by decision of the Finance Ministry.
2. The reason for this is, in part, the fact that the proportion of supervisory people to workmen is out of line. There is one supervisor to every 2.5 workers. Extensive dismissals within the supervisory groups are proposed, to improve the financial situation. As a result of this, there is great disquiet among the supervisory groups.
3. The construction bureau in the plant has very little work now. Production goes on, but only on those construction projects already planned for.
